

Join us as the SNOBs take to the road for the “Ultimate” Beer and No Sweat event on Saturday & Sunday, March 6-7, 2010. Ride in comfort in our motor coach up to Detroit, Michigan, stopping at several of the best breweries in Michigan on the way there. After checking into our hotel, our bus will drop us off at for dinner and more beer at the many breweries within a short drive of our hotel. After a relaxing evening of dining and drink, call a taxi to take you to the hotel to rest up for the next day. Continue with Beer and No Sweat on Sunday, if you dare, as we head for home, stopping for nourishment and a beer or two along the way. There are only 50 seats available on the bus, so gather your friends and reserve your seats early!!

The “ultimate” road trip will start from Lakefront, where the bus will leave promptly at 8:00 am. Plan to arrive early to check in, get a good seat and get your gear stowed away. Donuts, muffins, bagels and beverages will be available on the way up.

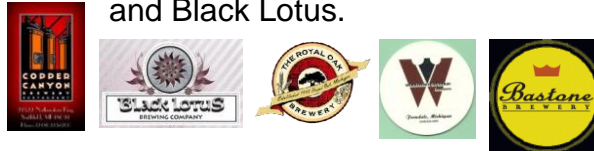

After a busy day, the bus will take us to our hotel, Hampton Inn Detroit, 32420 Stephenson Hwy in Madison Heights.

Then you can continue to explore the Detroit and beer scene by visiting any of the 8 nearby breweries and a beer bar or head back to the hotel to rest up for the next day. Some choices are: Woodward Avenue Brewers, Bastone, Royal Oak Brewery, Copper Canyon, Dragonmead, Berkley Front Tavern, and Black Lotus.

Sleep in Sunday morning and checkout by 10:00 am. Then we take to the road until our pub stop at Fort Street to visit Doug Beedy, formerly of Cornerstone.

Afterward, we leave the driving to Denes, our SNOB chauffeur, while we relax and enjoy ourselves on the way home, back to Lakefront and our cars. Additional munchies provided for the trip home.

Don't forget to save a few dollars for the SNOB raffles available on the bus.
